

WOLTi's Youth Justice Support Flow Chart

Long Term
Rehabilitation

- * Small businessstart-up support
- * Back to school/education support
- Continued assistance after end of court orders or after 18 y.o.
- * Links to trade training or appreniceship/traineeship
- Hands-on skillsbuilding projects, i.e. car restoration, building tiny houses etc.
- * Connection to Country program
- Assistance to connect with extended family
- * Elder visits & mentoring
- Indigenouse arts & crafts leading to employment
- Assistance with independent living arrangements
- Career orientation & employability skills
- * Assistance & tutoring for completing further studies

Ongoing support without time limit until independance. & stability is reached tailored to individual needs, supported by staff & our pool of volunteers.

Youth Justice
Office
(During
Bail/Court
Order

- Basic health & safety needs
- transport assistance
- * T2S support
- * Cultural connection & education
- Parent Group Sessions & Individual visits
- * Attendance & support on court date & other important appointments
- * Mentoring & emmotional education
- * Employability guidance & support
- Emmergency accommodation (WOLTi House)

WOLTi House

- * Intense training with accomodation, 4 weeks
- * WOLTi life lessons program
- * Imediate Emmergency Accomodation
- * Mentoring & basic life skills for healthy living
- Trade training (horticulture, building & construction & hospitality)
- Elders involvement in cultural awareness
- Linksto industry & employers
- Space provided to YJ to run T2S

BYDC Support Sessions & Activities

- * Raport Building
- * Life Lessons
- Motivation to study & Training during detention (BYETC)
- Self esteem building
- * Plan for a positive future outside crime
- Awareness of where do drugs & crime leadt
- Contactwit families were possible
- Home visits immediately upon releas for a reas stated in contct.

HOMELESS OR IN SEVERE CRISIS

(whether under YJ support or not)

- Emmergency accommodation
- * Assistance to set-up safe housing long-term
- * Employment assistance